

House Resolution No. 732

Whereas, from time to time the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize the meritorious achievements of exceptional young citizens of the Show-Me State; and

Whereas, Tyler Williams, a freshman at Oak Ridge High School, has enjoyed the honor, glory, and distinction of winning First Place during the Annual Middle School Design-Build Competition held on March 4, 2003 in Kansas City, Missouri; and

Whereas, over two thousand middle school children from three states descended on Kansas City for the Fifth Annual Middle School Design-Build Competition which is coordinated by the Center for Construction Excellence and sponsored by Central Missouri State University, the University of Missouri-Kansas City, Sprint, the National Association of Women in Construction, and many architectural, engineering, and construction firms; and

Whereas, the purpose of the event is to introduce more children to the architecture - engineering - construction industry and encourage them to choose appropriate high school and college curriculums that lead toward positions in the industry; and

Whereas, the Middle School team projects were graded over several subjects, including their prepared scope statement, site plan, floor plan, bill of materials, schedule, job activity report, meeting budget, and a physical house model; and

Whereas, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Williams, Tyler has also enjoyed recognition for being a talented and valuable member of the Oak Ridge High School Band and for earning eligibility to take part in the Regional Science Fair to be held on March 11, 2003, in Cape Girardeau; and

Whereas, America looks forward to a bright and promising future because of the achievements already realized by such young citizens as Tyler Williams:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Tyler Williams at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction and in wishing him continued success in all future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Tyler Williams, as a measure of our esteem for him.
